Just for you!

CLASS 3.21 Making Plans.

- Different ways to talk about the future.

Listen to the next conversations.

- Hello Monica, how are you?
- Good and you?
- I'm fine, are you doing something tomorrow night.
- Tomorrow? I have my English class and then I am meeting Carol afterwards, she wants me to help her with a problem with her computer.
- Oh I see ...

Today, I am planning to stay in the office to work late. We are having this very important deadline and I just think we won't finish all the projects on time, so I'll just stop by my apartment to get a shower, and then I'll go right back to the office until I finish everything.

I know it sounds like something very stressing but the reality is that I have a party this Friday and I am leaving the office earlier that night.

Listen to the next conversations.

- So, you are going to be out of town this Friday.
- Yes, I am sorry.
- Ohh, you will miss the party! Everyone is going to be asking about you.
- Yes, I know, but I have this family meeting on Friday, My sister is getting married.
- Oh I see congratulations, I will save you some cake though.
