

Highlight English

Just for you!

Class 3.29 Phrasal verbs with “get”.

- Phrasal verbs with get.
- Relationships

Listen to the next audio and complete.

- What time do you usually _____ in the mornings?
- The police couldn't catch the bank robbers. They _____.
- I'm bored! Let's _____ with our friends this weekend.
- Hurry! We don't want to miss the train! Let's _____.

Listen to the next audio and complete.

- Staying warm and getting rest will help you _____ your cold.
- Tommy _____ after he told a lie.
- I really like my classmates. We all _____ each other
- I have to _____ the plane in Toronto and transfer to another plane.

Listen to the next audio and complete.

- You should study more, so you don't _____ in maths and science.
- Last week, we _____ from our holiday in Spain.
- My job doesn't pay me much money. It's difficult for me to
_____!
- I found a better job with a higher salary, so now I can
_____!

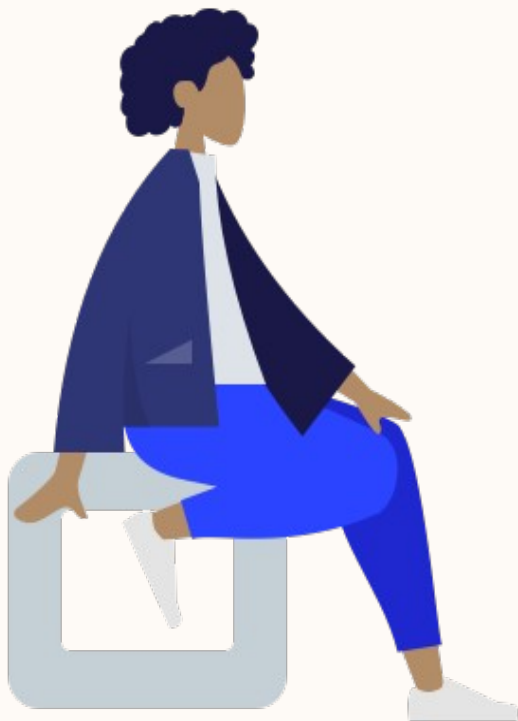

Separable phrasal verbs.

- With separable phrasal verbs, the verb and particle can be apart or together.
- They've called the meeting off.
- OR
- They've called off the meeting

Separable phrasal verbs.

- However, separable phrasal verbs must be separated when you use a personal pronoun.
- The meeting? They've called it off.

Separable phrasal verbs.

- Here are some common separable phrasal verbs:
- I didn't want to bring the situation up at the meeting.
(bring up = start talking about a particular subject)
- Please can you fill this form in?
(fill in = write information in a form or document)
- I'll pick you up from the station at 8 p.m.
(pick up = collect someone in a car or other vehicle to take them somewhere)
- She turned the job down because she didn't want to move to Glasgow.
(turn down = to not accept an offer)

Rewrite the next sentences without separating the Phrasal verbs, Add something if it is necessary.

- I didn't want to bring the situation up at the meeting.
- Please can you fill this form in?
- I'll pick you up from the station at 8 p.m.
- She turned the job down because she didn't want to move to Glasgow.

Match the phrasal verbs with the correct meaning.

Phrasal Verb	Answer	Meaning
A. get ahead	7	1. to leave your bed in the morning
B. get along (with)		2. to leave a boat, bicycle, bus, plane or train
C. get behind		3. to return to the original starting place
D. get back		4. to progress
E. get by		5. to meet other people to socialize
F. get into trouble		6. to be friendly with someone
G. get off		7. to have just enough money to survive
H. get together (with)		8. to do something not allowed and be found out
I. get up		9. to board a boat, bicycle, bus, plane or train
J. get on		10. to fail to do work according to schedule

Match the phrasal verbs with the correct meaning.

Phrasal Verb	Answer	Meaning
A. get ahead	4	1. to leave your bed in the morning
B. get along (with)	6	2. to leave a boat, bicycle, bus, plane or train
C. get behind	10	3. to return to the original starting place
D. get back	3	4. to progress
E. get by	7	5. to meet other people to socialize
F. get into trouble	8	6. to be friendly with someone
G. get off	2	7. to have just enough money to survive
H. get together (with)	5	8. to do something not allowed and be found out
I. get up	1	9. to board a boat, bicycle, bus, plane or train
J. get on	9	10. to fail to do work according to schedule

Choose some topics and talk about them.

What excuses have you given to get out of doing something you didn't want to do?

What things get at you? What makes you mad?

Describe how you got over a disappointment.

Think about somebody that you don't get on with. How do you deal with it?

What do you do when you find it difficult to get through to somebody?