

Highlight English

Just for you!

Class 3.27 My Longtime Friend.

- Relative clauses.
- Vocabulary practice: someone who

Listen to the next phrases.

- I have a friend who speaks five languages.
- I have a cousin who lives in Guatemala.
- I have a noisy neighbor that always throws parties on the weekend.

- Write three relative phrases using:

“I have a [someone] that/which/who [something]”

- Then, write a little paragraph using one of those phrases as the main idea:
- “I have [a cousin] who [lives in Guatemala] he works in a company that ...

Now listen to the next phrases.

- I'm looking for a bakery which can have a wedding cake ready for this weekend.
- They will buy a computer that has the newest features for video editing.
- My cousin is enrolled in a university that offers better scholarships.

- Write three relative phrases using:

“_____ [someone/ something] that [something]”

- Then, write a little paragraph using one of those phrases as the main idea:

“I am training for [a contest] that
[will take place in Colombia] the rest of the contenders are for different parts of ...”

Relative clauses.

- Finally, write about something about your school, your hobbies, your home-country etc. try using different structures, do not use only relative clauses.

- Grammar the set of rules [which | | that] explain how words are used in a language.